SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1X

1. Two sentries wearing black-red service colors and artillery insignia are posted at the entrance of Schwechat Castle. No soldiers were seen in this area. Observation was blocked by trees. A signboard bearing Cyrillic inscription ШВЕЧИНАЯ МАСТРОВКАЯ (tailor's shop) is affixed to the surrounding wall. A partly ruined building opposite the castle is used as Soviet troop billets. The service colors could not be ascertained.

2. On the road between Schwechat and Zwoelffaxing, a truck, was driving in direction of Schwechat. Two soldiers with black-red service colors and artillery insignia were walking toward Zwoelffaxing airfield. **

3. Forty PE-2 planes in one group and at least eight additional planes of the same type were parked on the Zwoelffaxing airfield. No airdrome activity was observed.

25X1X 3 [REDACTED] Comment: Sketch 2 is a copy of a sketch made during previous observation on 9 November 1951.

25X1X 2 [REDACTED] Comment: Soldiers with same service color had been observed in this area before. Source believes therefore, that an AA unit is stationed at Zwoelffaxing.
